2. The good man, long dejected, had knelt to Him who hears; / the blest refrain now swelling, removes his doubts and fears.

3. Then be ye glad, good people, this night of all the year; / and light ye up your candles, His star it shineth near.

4. And all in earth and heaven, our Christmas Carol sing: / Goodwill, and peace, and glory! And all the bells shall ring.
